YOU MAKE IT HAPPEN

This powerful and motivational presentation will delight your group into taking the actions needed to further success. You Make It Happen takes the audience on a humorous journey of building better communication skills.

Throughout the program Jeffrey includes stories that will encourage, provide insight, and share light-hearted examples of putting the new skills to work in both professional and personal situations.

Those attending will experience the power of communication awareness shifts through real stories about rebuilt attitudes and positive actions. They know after experiencing this program that they, indeed, Make It Happen!

The program includes planning, agreement, personality approaches, the power of questions, and four specific skills to persuade.
