

Team Mega-Success

If you want to empower yourself and the teams to whom you are responsible, then the skills provided in this workshop are a must. Employees get distracted, confused and stressed, and with all the change going on restoring productivity and profitability isn't easy - and new problems call for new responses. This program will increase the number of responses you have available to create mega-success by using the right tools at the right time to fix the problems and get the results.

Nothing is more frustrating than a team that never hits maximum potential. Team effectiveness is slowed or destroyed with:

- Ineffective objectives
- Infighting among members
- Interference in implementation

You can prevent most organization team problems. This workshop will show you how.

You will learn ways to...

- Develop the best teams for the future
- Make necessary changes to current teams to be successful
- Introduce the critical communication skills to resolve team conflict

If you're like most, you're being forced to do more with less. You can't afford the cost of team failure. This seminar will give you the skills you need to create the teams you want to be part of.

You and your people will learn powerful new ways to:

1. Incorporate the elements that make teams a success.

Including establishing team identity, purpose, and protocol that advances communication and produces results.

2. Prepare yourself and your team for success.

Planning for the necessary changes and understanding roles and contributions that make a team successful. Enhancing the skills to increase communication as the dynamics of the team develop

3. Learn specific tools for resolving conflict occurring with team members.

Tools for identifying and handling negativity and aggressive destructive behavior are delivered as well as improving communication to avoid conflict and re-focusing on objectives.
